About Our School:

Center Stage Dance LA is a school uniquely designed to encourage an appreciation and interest in dance and music. While sharing our love of dance, we strive to provide a fun, enthusiastic, and nurturing environment for our students. All the teachers at Center Stage Dance LA are working professional dancers and choreographers who have performed in TV commercials, music videos, movies, and stage shows. We are very proud to have been listed in the July 2000 issue of Los Angeles Magazine as the “best kids’ dance classes in L.A.”

About Our Classes:

Three-year-olds start with a 45-minute class of creative movement to develop simple dance skills. Classes for ages 4 through 7 are one hour and combine creative movement, ballet, and tap. At age 6, children can also add a combination class of pre hip hop-jazz. One-hour classes in jazz, ballet, tap, acrobatics, and hip hop are offered for ages 8 and up. We also offer a children’s musical theatre class, which combines dancing with singing and acting. Teens can enjoy open-level hip hop, acrobatics, and ballet classes.

About The Owner:

Rosetta Gitlin, “Miss Rosie,” began performing with Ginger Rogers in Hello Dolly, then went on to become one of the Goldiggers on The Dean Martin Show. The Goldiggers also sang and danced all over the United States and in Vietnam with the Bob Hope USO Tours. Rosie performed on Laugh-In, The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson, and in the Opening Ceremonies of the 1984 Olympics in Los Angeles. Since 1976, she has been teaching in the Los Angeles area, affiliated with several well-known schools. This year marks her 25th anniversary of owning her own studio (Center Stage Dance LA, formerly known as Petite Dancers).
